4. All exhibits entered for competition must have been owned by the exhibitor at least sixty days before the Fair.
5. Fruit, grain, vegetables, flowers, etc. must have been owned by the exhibitor and all manufactured goods must have been made by the competitor.
6. No article or animal can compete for more than one premium except in trials of speed and specials.
7. Exhibitors of tools, implements, machinery, and manufactured goods will give the name of the manufacturer as well as agent representing same.
8. All expenses of transportation and transfer to the space allotted must be paid by the owner or agent. The Association cordially invites implement dealers to exhibit their goods.
9. All articles of exhibitors must be respected as private property and any person detected in purloining or injuring them will be dealt with according to law.
10. Exhibitors are required to give personal attention to their property and animals and at the close of the Exposition to see to their removal; only on this condition are entries received and the Association will not assume any liability for personal injury sustained by any person entering the grounds. All persons renting privileges upon the grounds and all exhibitors of livestock, machinery, etc. must so attend to their removal, as the Association will not assume further responsibility. Exhibitors must produce their duplicate cards to the Superintendent in charge before attempting to remove their property.
11. Superintendents of Departments and employees of the Association will be in attendance from 9 AM until close of building at their respective places on the grounds during the days of exhibition. Fair exhibition buildings officially open Saturday, September 21, at 9 AM. Buildings will be open to the public at that time.

FIRST ENTRY LIST PRESENTED WILL BE FINAL.— NO ADDED LISTS—

When an entry is made of articles, the Secretary will give to the party a card, which will contain the number, entry, and class, which must be attached to the stall or article; otherwise, it will be passed over by the Judges without notice and no premium awarded.

No entry for same article will be made in more than one department.

ALL ENTRIES MUST BE MADE IN STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH THE PREMIUM LISTS, AND ALL AWARDS MADE IN ACCORDANCE.

All possible care will be taken to select competent, impartial, and disinterested persons for members of Awarding Committee and no person will be allowed to influence the committee in any way or to interfere with them in the discharge of their duties, upon penalty of forfeiting their premium.

Our Premium Lists are somewhat different this year, as it must conform to the Pennsylvania Fair Fund Regulations. PLEASE BE SURE TO HAVE STOCK AND ARTICLE ENTERED PROPERLY!

Exhibitors are urged to make their entries as soon as possible after the 31ST of August to avoid the usual rush of the last few days of receiving entries. All entry fees must be paid at time entries are made.

No exhibitors will be permitted to remove goods until Sunday, September 29.

ALL PREMIUM CHECKS MUST BE CASHED WITHIN 90 DAYS.

INSTRUCTIONS TO JUDGES

The Judges upon arrival at the grounds will report to the director of the department they are to judge, where the books of entries will be delivered to them and instructions given by the Director and the examination of exhibits will immediately take place. Judges are respectfully requested to be punctual in attendance at the hour and place named.

JUDGES MUST CONFINE THEIR AWARDS STRICTLY TO PREMIUMS OFFERED BY THE ASSOCIATION.

If the Judges are not satisfied as to the regularity of the entries in their respective Classes, they will apply to the Director for information and should there be any doubt, after examination, they will report the facts to the Director for consideration of the Executive Committee.

The Judges on agricultural products will give preference to such varieties as are adapted to the interest of the farmer, regarding yield, quality, and market value thereof.

The Judges will, in all cases, whether there is competition or not, award only such premiums as they think proper, either first or second or reduce the amount or withhold altogether as the merit of the animal or article may warrant and write the amount so awarded in the committee books, or mark unworthy.

As soon as the Judges complete their awards they will deliver their report to the Director, properly signed with remarks or explanation on the margin for any irregular notice.
